Thanksgiving. We regret to say that in Warren, the day was marked by but little change from the ordinary business routine .-Stores and shops were all open. Divine service was held at the Methodist church, in which the members of the Presbyterian and Baptist denominations joined The sermon by Rev. Mr. Maltby, was a labored effort which we have heard highly commended. At the Disciple and Episcopaliar churches, sermons were delivered by their respective pastors, both of which, we are informed, were well conceived, and appropria e to the occasion. The feasting part of the celebra tion of the day, was not neglected.

It will not be a mark of the upward progress of the age, when this time-honored custom of the observance of one day in the year, as a day of Thanksgiving, shall fall into disuse. Surely, if there ever was a time when the people of Ohio had reason to be thankful for the blessings s'iowered upon them by a kind Providence, it is now. Their granaries are full, peace and health dwell within their borders.

Improvement in Gates The latest and best invention for shutting gates, which has come under our observation, is an iron spring attached to the post by a screw bolt, and also to the gate, by a short link. It allows the gate to open its full width, and still the pressure is exactly the same as when it is partly open, thus rendering it impossible to leave it open undesignedly; while it does not at all interfere with the passage through the gateway. We have one attached to one of our own gates, and can therefore, speak understandingly. Mr. S. D. Adams, of Bristol, is selling them through this county. As they are not expensive, costing $1.50, and perfectly perform the office for which they are designed, we do not don't there are many who, like ourselves, will be glad to avail themselves of a means of protecting yards and chrubbery from the visits of lawless cattle and swine. The Euphonians.

This company of singers gave their second concert in Empire Hall, on Tuesday evening of last week. The audience, though respectable in numbers, was not as large as the talents of the sing ers deserved. The singing, particularly that of Mrs. Rainey, was excellent. We think we hazard nothing in saying that her singing has not been equalled by the performance of any lady, in any of the companies who have sang in public, in th's place, for the last ten years. In purity of tone, compass of voice, and artistic skill, she certainly has had no competitor here. The unpretending, gentlemanly and lady like deportment of the whole trcupe, have left favorable impressions on all with whom they were brought in contact. We wish them abundant success.

That Dinner.

Which McManus got up at the Gaskill House Saloon, on Thanksgiving Day, and invited some of his friends to help pul down, was just what might have been expected. Every one, who has had an opportunity of testing Mac's skill in the culinary line. knows that he can't be beat, and his efforts on this occasion were characteristic of him. Turkies, Fresh Fish Oysters, &c., &c., were successively brought forth, and rapidly disposed of. It is not often that Printer's Devils, (to say nothing of Edi ors.) get a chance to indulge in the luxury of such a dinner, and the way this opportunity was improved, was evidence that it was fully appreciated. Who wouldn't return thanks for such a dinner? Mac surely has our .

We were pained to learn, just as our paper was going to press, that Mr. At. BERT L. MORLEY died suddenly, at his Tuesday morning. Mr. M. had been in delicate health for some time, but was in his store on Monday, transacting business. In the evening he had a siight attack of hemorlage from the lungs .-At 5 o'clock Tuesday morning, he was again attacked, and almost instantly expired. Mr. Morley was a well known and valued citizen, and his death will be deeply regretted.

One of the nuisances which occasionally favor this town with a visit, in the shape of a poor travelling theatre, made its appearance at the Empire Hall one evening last week. It rejoiced when here, in the title of the Couldock Dramatic Company. It is an unmitigated humbug, and those who do not wish to

He is mak ing large additions to my former steek, and I respectfully solicit for him the pationage heretofore extended to me in this department. As for myself it is my intention to devote all my time, e ergy and capital, to the sake of PIANO FORTES AND MILLOBEONS. I am now receiving the largest stock in this line. I have ever parchased, and am repared to say the next dock and the chespest. It shall be my aim, as it has been, to sell mone but those I believe to be the best instruments, and at such prices as to make it it an object for persons to purchase of me instead of baying at Olary land, Pittsburgh or East. I select my Instruments with the greatest care, deliver them and sarrant them not only to be good, but to satisfy the purchase. I have now been selling Planos and Metodeons for over 7 years, and so far as I know, my customers have without an exception been perfectly satisfied, in every respect, both with the quality of their instruments and the proce paid. I subjoin the natures of a few of those who have purchased Planos of me within the last parts, to shom persons interested can refer:

The tavor with which this establishment has long been regarded by the public generally, and especially those who approciate a very superior kind of work, and consider their own interest renders any other advertisement almost superfictions.

My extensive Fall and Winter stock of CLOTHS, ASSIMERES, VESTINGS and TRIMMINGS, with a choice assertment of READY-MADE CLOTHING and FURNISHING GOODS, and a carefully selected and extensive stock of HATS AND CAPS, of all prices and styles, and in short almost everything that is wanted to improve the outer man, can at all times be found.

From long experience in business, and having arrangements in New York so as to be posted up in everything that is new, both in goods and styles of garments, it is evident that a more perfect and extensive establishment of the kind cannot be found in this section of country.
